

Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate

North Carolina Department of Revenue

Important: You must complete a new Form NC-4 EZ or NC-4 for tax year 2014. As a result of recent law changes, how you determine the number of allowances for tax year 2014 will differ from previous years. Most taxpayers will not be entitled to as many allowances, and as a result, more taxpayers should claim zero (0) allowances. Additionally, you are no longer allowed to claim a N.C. withholding exemption for yourself, your spouse, your children, or any other qualifying dependents.

PURPOSE - Complete Form NC-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, so that your employer can withhold the correct amount of State income tax from your pay. If you do not provide a new NC-4 to your employer, your employer is required to withhold based on single with zero allowances.

FORM NC-4 EZ - A new form was created for tax year 2014 for taxpayers who intend to claim either: exempt status, or the N.C. standard deduction and no tax credits or only the credit for children.

FORM NC-4 BASIC INSTRUCTIONS - Complete the Allowance Worksheet. The worksheet will help you figure the number of withholding allowances you are entitled to claim. The worksheet is provided for employees to adjust their withholding allowances based on N.C. itemized deductions, federal adjustments to income, N.C. additions to federal adjusted gross income, N.C. deductions from federal adjusted gross income, or N.C. tax credits. However, you may claim fewer allowances if you wish to increase the tax withheld during the year. If your withholding allowances decrease, you must file another NC-4 with your employer within 10 days after the change occurs. Exception: When an individual ceases to be head of household after maintaining the household for the major portion of the year, a new NC-4 is not required until the next year.

TWO OR MORE JOBS - If you have more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using one Form NC-4 Allowance Worksheet. Your withholding will usually be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the NC-4 filed for the higher paying job and zero allowances are claimed for the other. You should also refer to the Multiple Jobs Table to determine the additional amount to be withheld on line 2 of Form NC-4 (See Allowance Worksheet).

NONWAGE INCOME - If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, you should consider making estimated tax payments using Form NC-40 to avoid underpayment of estimated tax interest. Form NC-40 is available on our website at www.dorn.com under individual income tax forms.

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD - Generally you may claim head of household status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. Note: "Head of Household" for State tax purposes is the same as for federal tax purposes.

QUALIFYING WIDOW(ER) - You may claim qualifying widow(er) status only if your spouse died in either of the two preceding tax years and you meet the following requirements:

1. Your home is maintained as the main household of a child or stepchild for whom you can claim a federal exemption; and
2. You were entitled to file a joint return with your spouse in the year of your spouse's death.

MARRIED TAXPAYERS - For married taxpayers, both spouses must agree as to whether they will each complete the Allowance Worksheet based on married filing jointly or married filing separately.

- For married taxpayers completing the Allowance Worksheet based on married filing jointly, you will consider the sum of both spouses incomes, adjustments, additions, deductions, and credits on the Allowance Worksheet to determine the number of allowances.
- For married taxpayers completing the worksheet on the basis of married filing separately, each spouse will consider only his or her portion of income, adjustments, additions, deductions, and credits on the Allowance Worksheet to determine the number of allowances.

All NC-4 forms are subject to review by the North Carolina Department of Revenue. Your employer may be required to send this form to the North Carolina Department of Revenue.

CAUTION: If you furnish an employer with an Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate that contains information which has no reasonable basis and results in a lesser amount of tax being withheld than would have been withheld had you furnished reasonable information, you are subject to a penalty of 50% of the amount not properly withheld.

Cut here and give this certificate to your employer. Keep the top portion for your records.
